

Old cathedral ruins and St Mary's Guildhall

COME TO COVENTRY Thursday 11 July 2019

A self-guided day out by coach to explore the mid-20th-century cathedral with its John Piper stained glass, Graham Sutherland tapestry and many other impressive artworks commissioned by architect Sir Basil Spence

Also an opportunity to visit close by:

- The ruins of the old cathedral
- Holy Trinity Church with its 1430s' 'Doom' painting
- Medieval St Mary's Guildhall and the Coventry Tapestry
- Herbert Art Gallery and Museum
- optional one-hour tour of Coventry Archives at 2pm (pre-booking essential)

A map and information notes will be provided also suggestions of places for coffee, lunch and tea

Pick up points: Cheltenham, Royal Well 9.00 am Gloucester, Station Road (Lister Building) 9.30am arrive centre of Coventry approximately 11.00am, depart 4.30pm arriving back approximately: Gloucester 6.00pm Cheltenham 6.30pm

FoGA members £15, non-members £20. Tour of Coventry Archives £5
Admission is free to the Cathedral, Trinity church, Guildhall and the Herbert

Booking forms available on FoGA website www.foga.org.uk or Heritage Hub Reception for further information or queries please contact Cherry Ann Knott 01453-762796

Last date for bookings Wednesday 3 July